

REMOVING CARPET STAINS GUIDE

* Always test product on small area in inconspicuous space

Coffee Removal

Blot excess up with a white cloth towel. Then, furthermore, mix a solution of fifty percent white vinegar and fifty percent water. Apply, Blot up excess.

Drinks - Food Dye Color

Blot excess up with a white cloth or towel. Use a 2 part heat transfer removal.

Dirt Stain Removal

Wait till dry, then dry vacuum thoroughly.

Gum Removal

Freeze with an ice cube. Then flake off with a knife.

Wax Removal

Place a paper towel over wax. Then place an iron on top Of paper for 15-second Intervals. Replace paper & repeat.

Blood Removal

Blot excess up with a white cloth/towel. Apply cold water sparingly Blot. Disinfect Then blot out again. If you own a wet-dry vacuum extractor, use that to remove excess moisture.

Ink Removal

Blot excess up with a paper towel, first of all, acetone. Avoid working the stain into the carpet backing or spreading it. If you own a wet-dry vacuum extractor, use that to remove excess moisture.

Red Wine Stain Removal

1. Blot up as much of the red wine stain as possible by using a clean white cloth. If you own a wet-dry vacuum, use that to remove excess moisture.
2. Pour cold water onto the red wine stain, also, blot up the stained area again. Finally, until no more stain can be removed.
3. Use a 4-1 baking soda water paste on the red wine stain. Allow it to dry before vacuuming up. If you own a wet-dry vac, use that to dry

Lipstick Removal

Scrape excess off carefully with a knife if you own a wet-dry vacuum extractor use that to remove excess moisture.

Pet Urine Removal

Mix a solution of fifty percent white vinegar, also, fifty percent water. Get the answer in with a scrubbing brush to ensure it penetrates the carpet fibers below. Now blot the area again using the paper towel method above. The vinegar will, first of all, neutralize the alkaline and ammonia in the dog urine. If you own a wet-dry vacuum, use that to extract moisture.

Profesional Stain Removal Companies

Brighter Carpets Auckland

027 468 1360

 TENANCY.CO.NZ

 REAL ESTATE
INSTITUTE OF
NEW ZEALAND

 REAL ESTATE AUTHORITY
TE MANA PAPAWHENUA

DARIN COBB
DIRECTOR

M: 021 917 688

E: darin@cobbproperty.co.nz
LG/8 Central Road,
Kingsland, Auckland 1021