At the end of a tenancy the tenant(s) can ask to transfer the bond to a new tenancy address. The previous tenant(s) and the previous landlord(s) complete and sign Section 1 of the bond transfer form. The new tenant(s) and new landlord(s) complete and sign Section 2 of the bond transfer form.

Privacy statement

Personal Information provided on this form will be held and used by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment for the purposes of administering and enforcing the Residential Tenancies Act 1986. It may also be used for carrying out customer surveys, public education and statistical analysis, and we may occasionally provide your information to third parties to carry out this work on our behalf.

We collect date of birth information to help us correctly identify you. Supplying your date of birth is optional.

Bond contribution information provided to Tenancy Services may be used to help confirm refund details for each tenant at the end of the tenancy. Supplying this information is optional.

The personal information you supply will not be used for any other reasons unless permitted under the Privacy Act 2020 (e.g. with your consent or for a directly related purpose). The information may also be provided to third parties where it is required or permitted by law. The personal information you supply will be provided to all parties named on this form or on the bond record. You can access or correct your personal information held by us at any time.

Dwelling type definitions

House/Townhouse: When you live in a self-contained property, usually a building with land.

Apartment: When you live in a property with self-contained areas (e.g. apartments, units) and shared areas (e.g. building lifts, driveways).

Boarding House Room: When you live in a room in a boarding house – i.e. rented separately but sharing facilities in a building intended for six people or more.

Room: When you live in a room in a house which is not a boarding house – i.e. rented separately but sharing facilities in a building intended for less than 6 people.

Bedsit/Flat: When you live in a place which is either part of a subdivided building, or a building which is independent of the primary residence of a property (e.g. sleep-out).

Previous bond number

This is the bond number for the previous tenancy address. It is on all our letters to you about this rented property. If you do not have it please call us.

New bond number

Enter the new bond number if the previous bond is to be transferred to an existing bond at the new address. If you do not have a new bond number then leave this blank.

Property ID number

If you do not know the Property ID number for this property, leave the box blank.

Transfer amount

This is how much bond money you want to transfer from your old bond.

Weekly rent and Type of property

This information is gathered by Tenancy Services so that the general public and landlords have access to current rental market information through the Tenancy Services website. No personal, individual bond or property information will be published there.

No. of bedrooms – If you are only renting a room, the number of bedrooms is one.

Landlord ID number

If you do not know this number, leave the box blank.

Tenant(s)

The names and address for service and daytime phone number for all new tenants should be included.

At least one of the tenants from the previous address must be transferring to the new address.

Address for service

This information will assist Tenancy Services to contact you regarding this bond and to minimise any delays in paying out/refunding the bond when the tenancy finishes.

Landlord’s address for service:

If you provide an email address, we will use this as the primary means for communication. However, a physical address must also be provided.

If we need to contact you at a street address regarding this tenancy we will use the address for service you provided.

In addition to a street address, a PO Box address can also be provided as an address for service.

Tenant’s address for service:

If you provide an email address, we will use this as the primary means for communication. If we need to contact you at a street address during your tenancy we will use the address of the rented property or the address for service you give us. A new address for service is required after the tenancy has ended.

In addition to a street address, a PO Box can also be provided to be used as an address for service.

PLEASE NOTE: By providing a PO Box or email address, you are authorising Tenancy Services to use these to contact you.
